

I am writing about the petition to weaken the no-call laws in Indiana. Please do not allow these financial institutions to call us at home. Since the no-call was instituted, my day is so much nicer; more peaceful. Before, I would bark into the phone every time it rang. Please let us keep our privacy!